

Media contact

Sandra Ferguson
Membership Officer
416-652-0137 (CANADA) | 716-754-4883 (USA)
info@iamat.org

Media Fact Sheet

About IAMAT

- We are a non-profit organization that keeps travellers healthy.
- We help travellers plan a healthy trip by providing up-to-date information about health risks and immunizations for all countries.
- We award travel medicine scholarships to doctors and nurses from Africa.
- We are a registered charity in Canada and the USA. All donations support programs that keep travellers healthy.

Our members

- Anyone can become an IAMAT member.
- Membership is free for the first year and renewable with a donation.
- The majority of our members are American and Canadian travellers.
- Typical travel styles include independent leisure, visiting friends and relatives, cruise, adventure/expedition, and resort/tour group.

Topics we cover

- Travel vaccines (including Rabies, Yellow Fever, Hepatitis A, Typhoid, Tick-Borne Encephalitis)
- Pre-travel health planning
- Post-travel health concerns
- Travel health insurance
- What to do if you fall ill abroad
- Infectious diseases (including Malaria, Schistosomiasis, and Chagas)
- Insect bite prevention
- Travel and mental health
- Older travellers
- Personalized travel health advice

Social media

- Twitter: @IAMAT_Travel
- Facebook: @IAMATHealth
- Instagram: @IAMAT_Travel
- LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/company/iamat

In the media

I was bitten by a feral dog while overseas. My search for rabies shots was a terrifying ordeal. – Washington Post
Have mask, will travel. Tips for coping with pollution wherever you roam.
– Washington Post
Do Travelers Still Need to Worry About the Zika Virus in 2019? – Smarter Travel
A Small Travel Insurance Change That Could Save Your Next Vacation – Forbes
Finding Open-Minded Health Care Abroad – New York Times

###

July 5, 2019